HOMESTEAD VALLEY GROUP SUPPORTING DEPLOYED MARINES

The Homestead Valley Community Council is supporting one of the units from the Twentynine Palms Marine Base deployed in Afghanistan. Managing Editor Karl Gardner tells you how to help...

The citizens of the Homestead Valley Community Council or HVCC have joined forces to sponsor Twentynine Palms Marine Base unit, Marine Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Squadron 1, or VMU 1. VMU-1 has about 140 Marines and Sailors deployed overseas in a hostile environment, away from family and friends. Small gifts and comforts from home mean a lot. The HVCC is collecting donations to purchase and ship gifts that will help make the life a little more bearable for our heroes. The HVCC has collected over $1500 of their $2000 goal. Please donate whatever you can today. Log onto to hvccsite.org to make a secure donation, or send a check for any amount to HVCC, marked "unit sponsor" to PO Box 3694, Landers, CA 92285.
